

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, March 14. 1717.

From the Hague Conrant, dated March 16.

Cadiz, February 16.

A New Intendant being come hither from Madrid, to hasten the Departure of the Flotilla to New Spain; publick Notice is given, that the Ships that are ready by the Middle of April, shall sail at that time; but those that cannot then be ready, must tarry behind. But notwithstanding this Order, 'tis thought 'twill be the Beginning of June before this Fleet can sail. The British Man of War the Lyon, is lately sail'd from hence for England; and the Rochester Man of War is arrived here, which 'tis thought will soon sail thither also, together with a Frigate, and some Merchant-men. The Buenos Ayres Ships lie ready to sail.

Brussels, March 11. For the Relief of the Country, the two Imperial Regiments which are to march for Hungary, will not set out till eight Days after one another, and will be conducted to the Frontiers by a Commissary of the States of this Province. Commissaries of the Council of Finances are named, to deliver to the States General the Cannon which was found in the Towns of these Countries, after the Evacuation of the French Troops. Orders are given for delivering Bread regularly for the future, to the Imperial Troops, and those of this Country, in order to prevent all Disorders upon pretence of want of Subsistence.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated March 16.

Paris, March 6. After the Act of Appeal of the Four Bishops was read Yesterday in the Assembly of the Doctors of the Faculty of Divinity at the Sorbonne College; M. Ravechet put the Matter into Deliberation by an elegant and pathetick Speech, wherein he explain'd the Reasons that had hinder'd hitherto his express declaring himself concerning the Constitution, that the Faculty had already express'd in divers Manners their Sentiments upon that Subject, and that in fine, the Time is now come to join in the Appeal made by their Lords the Bishops. The Doctors were in Number 106, whereof 94 were for adhering to the Appeal; the rest were divided in their Opinions. M. Bidet, Sulpician, said, that he disapprov'd that Appeal and detested it, hujus modi Appellationem improbo & detestor: But he was oblig'd to retract the last Term, which he did without Difficulty: And one having advanc'd, that the Bishops were the Sons of the Pope, he was told, that the Bishops are the Brothers of the Pope. Every one of the Doctors who were for the Appeal, express'd their Opinions in Terms which testified the Liberty and Heartiness wherewith they embrac'd that Sentiment. M. l'Abbe Gilbert, Grand Vicar of M. the Cardinal de Noailles, was one of them. An Act was given to the Bishops of this Adherence of the Faculty, which was executed by Touvenot and Masson, Notaries, whom they brought with them, and they sign'd it also upon the Register of the Faculty. The Four Bishops being gone out of the Assembly, went directly to the Procureur General to do the same there, and caus'd their Appeal to be signified also to the Abbot de Broglie, Agent of the Clergy.

Upon this News, all Paris was in as much Joy as they could have been at the News of a great Victory. The same Day in the Afternoon, there was an Assembly at the Prince Regent's, where among others, were present the Cardinals de Rohan and de Bissi, and it was resolv'd that Order should be given to the 4 Bishops to depart from Paris in 24 Hours, which was executed the same Day. M. the Bishop of Montpellier is retired to Montmorency, the Bishop of Senes to Notre Dame de Verrus, the Bishop of Mirepoix to the Abbey of S. Dennis, and the Bishop of Boulogne to Creteil. Touvenot the Notary was carried to the Bastille, but he had before declar'd to the Bishops, that he was prepar'd for all Events, and that he enter'd not into this Affair but by a Spirit of Religion. The Syndic withdrew in Time, for this Morning a Privy Seal was sent to banish him to Lyons, others say to Collioure in the Roussillon, which was by Mistake signified to M. Habert. Yesterday the Clergy of divers Parishes of Paris, with their Curates, began to sign Acts of Adherence to the Appeal: Among the rest, the Parishes of St. Germain, St. Stephen, and St. James did it. Some of them have deposited these Acts at Notaries, others have carried them to the Officiality of the Procureur General, where they were received, but they have as yet defer'd recording them.

Paris, March 17. Here is lately published an Arrêt of the King's Council of State, dated March 5, which sets forth, That the King being inform'd that the Fear of the Diminution of the old Species of Gold and Silver, appointed by the Edict of November 1716, for the 16th of this present Month of March, causes so great a Quantity of the said Species to be brought into the Mints, that 'tis impossible to receive and pay them in the little time that remains. The King in his Council has therefore prorogued to the first of May next, the said Diminution; except the Louis d'Ors of 20 Livres. Another Arrêt of the Council of State of the same Date is published, to declare, that the Louis d'Ors fabricated or reform'd in Consequence of the Edict of December 1715, the Recoinage whereof was ordain'd by the Edict of November 1716, and that they should not continue to be paid in the Mint of Paris longer than the 15th of this Month of March: But his Majesty being inform'd of the Necessity there is of proroguing that Term to the End of this Month, to give his Subjects who are remote from Paris, time to bring in the said Louis d'Ors, has ordain'd that the said Louis d'Ors shall continue to be receiv'd and paid in the Mint of Paris, upon the Foot of 20 Livres to the End of the present Month of March. After which time, they shall not be received or paid but upon the Foot of preceeding Fabrications and Reformatations, upon Pain of Confiscation.
